PROFESSIONAL COACHING EXPERIENCE

- 1988-97 PAM SHRIVER
- 1988 Coached Pam to her last singles tour title at the Pan Pacific Tournament in Tokyo, Japan.
Coached Pam to many doubles championships while she played with Martina Navratilova.
- 1991 Coached Pam to U.S. Open doubles title (partnered with Zverera). This was Pam's last Grand Slam title.
- 2002 Pam Shriver inducted into the International Tennis Hall of Fame in Newport, RI. Pam's best wins with Eric Riley were Zina Garrison, Lori McNeil, Gigi Fernandez, Helena Sukova, and Brenda Schultz. Coached Pam against Martina Navratilova, Steffi Graff, and Gabriela Sabatini.
- 1995-1997 LISA RAYMOND
- 1996 Coached Lisa to:
her first professional singles title in Quebec City, Canada her first career Grand Slam doubles title: the U.S. Open mixed doubles titles with Patrick Galbraith her best finish at the U.S. Open: round 16 her first win over a top-five player, Conchita Martinez (#3 world ranking).
- 1997 Coached Lisa to Australian Open Doubles final (partner Davenport) and to final in Oklahoma City (lost to Davenport).
From the 1996 U.S. Open to the 1997 tournament in Oklahoma City, coached Lisa to nine consecutive tournament finals in either singles or doubles: U.S. Open, Filderstadt, Zurich, Quebec City, Chicago, Philadelphia, Australian Open, Oklahoma City, Palm Springs. During this period, Lisa improved her confidence and concentration skills and became a force on the WTA Tour. She finished the year in the top 20 and beat world #1 Martina Hingis and world #2 Jana Novotna in the fall of 1997.
- 2004-present Lisa defeated world #3 Elena Dementieva 6-0, 7-5 in Filderstadt, Germany.
2005, US Open women's doubles title.
2006, French Open women's doubles title.

Other professional players Eric has coached briefly on tour:

Kathy Jordan, Betsy Nagelson, the Jensen Brothers, Lori McNeil, Shaun Stafford, Alexandra Stevenson, and Zina Garrison
